Pirates of the Caribbean is a Disney Parks attraction that opened at Disneyland in 1969. Yo Ho (A Pirate's Life for Me) is the theme song for the attraction. Originally envisioned as only a wax pirate museum, it grew into a boat ride that weaves its way past motorized pirates as spectators in the boat view the action of pirates raiding a Caribbean seaport.

What a Wonderful World

Louis Armstrong recorded What a Wonderful World in 1968, and it became an immediate hit in Great Britain. Initial sales in the United States were slow because the record company did not promote the song. When Armstrong died in 1971, the song was re-released and it soon reached the Top Ten. In 1988, the Louis Armstrong version became even more popular when it was featured in the film Good Morning, Vietnam.
