Product Description:

This Schoenhut® 30-inch Acoustic Guitar, in a high-gloss lacquer wooden finish, is a unique introduction to playing for the aspiring young musician. It offers not only great sound and playability, but an affordable price, which is attractive to many first-time players seeking a "better-than-average" beginner guitar.

Celebrate the magic of music with this handcrafted Guitar, which can be used for guitar classes, private lessons and study... or playing in their first "Amateur Band."

A quality instrument is always beneficial when beginning the study of music, especially when the student is young. This guitar is easy to play, tunable, and will help to keep a child pursuing one of the most rewarding pastimes in history: making music.

This guitar comes with:

- Carrying case
- Extra string
- Pick
- Tuning pegs
