

Infinite Therapeutics is a division of Infinite Creative Enterprises (I.C.E.), a privately held company who, along with its sister companies, has been committed to excellence for nearly 20 years driving a track record of extraordinary success. The management team offers a combined experience of over 60 years in product design, manufacturing, and supply chain logistics. Our executive team is integrally involved from product inception to final QA/QC. In 2009 we were successful in launching our line of Infinity™ Therapeutic Massage Chairs and spa quality personal massage products, which has been embraced by the furniture industry. Our organization backs the product set with a complete solution of pre-sales support to post sale technical assistance with outstanding service to our customers as our primary goal.

I.C.E. owns headquarters located in Kingston, NH, and satellite offices in Las Vegas, NV. We operate distributions centers in Plaistow, NH, Ayer, MA, and Tukwila, WA. Our organization provides exceptional US Based Technical Support service, and superlative and personable corporate support staff.
