Before Installation

- Observe all local plumbing codes.
 - Make sure water supply is shut off.
 - Read these instructions carefully to ensure proper installation.
 - Check to make sure you have the following parts indicated below.
- If the water supply pressure is higher than 125psi (0.86MPa), you should buy a reducing valve to reduce the pressure to the range of 0.2-0.3MPa (0.2-0.3MPa).
To use the faucet comfortably, the recommended pressure is about 30-45 psi (0.2-0.3MPa).
 - To prevent being scalded due to malfunction, the cold water supply pressure must be higher than the hot water pressure, or you can make them equal. In addition, if you increase the pressure of the hot water, it still must be lower than that of cold water supply side.
 - To prevent being scalded due to wrong operation, it is recommended the hot water supply temperature is 140°F (60°C).
 - For ease of water flow adjustment and inspection with tools, you should prepare an extra stop valve.
